A SYMPOSIUM on the PASSION OF CHRIST

with keynote lecturer

Bishop Kallistos (Ware)

April 3-4, 2005

Orthodox hymnography declares that “through the cross joy has come into all the world.” Join us at SVS as we devote an evening and a full day of lectures and discussion to this ever-present reality of the Christian life and faith.

Symposium agenda

- Sunday, April 3: Bishop Kallistos will lecture at 7:30 PM, followed by refreshments
Monday, April 4: The faculty of SVS will give a full day of lectures; breakfast and lunch are included

Registration and further information

Bishop Kallistos' keynote lecture on Sunday evening is free and open to the public. Those who wish to attend the full symposium on Monday must register. Advance registration costs $25, while registration upon arrival is $35. The deadline for advance registration is March 30. Please visit the seminary's website, www.svots.edu, for a downloadable registration form and further information about this event, or e-mail events@svots.edu.
